ENTTEC SHORTCUT

The ENTTEC Shortcut is an ethernet enabled hardware console designed to be used in conjunction with computer based applications such as Enttec Lightfactory or as a standalone ESP or Artnet controller.
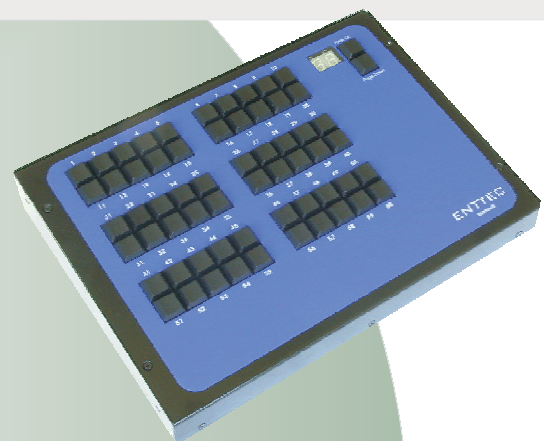

Compact

Flexible

OEM

The range of ENTTEC hardware consoles offers an easy to use API for software developers to integrate into their existing products. The front label can be customised to suit the OEM developer

Features

- 60 High quality Cherry keys
- Page up & Page down Keys
- 7 segment display
- 10 Base T Ethernet Port
- Inbuilt webpage for configuration
- Standalone ARTNET Controller mode